Greece: Drop Charges Against Sarah Mardini and Seán Binder

Dear Minister,

It is shocking that in Greece you can go to jail for saving lives. This is what happened to Sarah Mardini and Seán Binder, who volunteered for a sea search and rescue organization in Lesbos and helped people in danger at sea. But they ended up in prison charged with spying, people smuggling and belonging to a criminal organization, until they were released on bail in December 2018 while awaiting trial.

No government should ever make criminals of people helping refugees, instead of doing more to protect a refugee's right to find a safe place to live. When people need to escape conflict, torture or other abuses in their countries, they often have no option but to make highly dangerous journeys to reach safety. Please ensure that all charges against Sarah Mardini and Seán Binder are immediately dropped and acknowledge the legitimacy of the activities carried out by people acting in defense of refugee and migrant rights.

Yours sincerely,
